

Robert Damon – President, Damon Strategic Consulting, LLC

Robert Damon is President of Damon Strategic Consulting, LLC, a firm that provides accounting, tax, and advisory services to individuals and businesses. Mr. Damon maintains a modest CPA practice, advising numerous Naples-based businesses and offering tax planning and compliance services to individuals, trusts, and corporate clients.

Prior to relocating to Naples, Mr. Damon spent much of his career in New York City, serving as Chief Financial Officer and in other senior financial leadership positions at large corporate organizations. He began his career in public accounting and was with Ernst & Young in NYC from 1983 to 1991.

Mr. Damon is a 1980 graduate of Long Island University – Post Campus.

Community & Industry Involvement

- Timbercreek Homeowners Association (West Dover, VT):
 - Past President (3 years), Treasurer, Chair of the Finance Committee, and Member of the House & Grounds Committee of the 212-unit condominium association.
 - While President, Mr. Damon planned and oversaw a two-year $5 million re-siding project that was completed on time and under budget.
 - Media Financial Managers Association:
 - Former Chairman of the Board and Executive Committee Member of this national industry association for financial professionals in media and digital organizations.
 - Financial Executives International – Long Island Chapter:
 - Past President and Director of this industry group of CFOs and senior financial executives.
-

Certifications & Personal Life

- CPA licensed in both Florida and New York.
 - Bob and his wife of 44 years, Joyce, reside year-round in Esplanade by the Islands, Naples, FL.
-